This video is a resource created to provide supplementary context to topics covered in the course curriculum. It features real footage of teacher and student interaction. To that end, each video offers multiple choices the instructor can utilize in order to best meet the needs of his/her students. Below you will find suggestions for how to incorporate this video into your coursework:

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Strategy</th>
<th>Description</th>
<th>Recommendations</th>
</tr>
</thead>
</table>
| Script         | Participants watch the video and script both teacher and student actions.    | Video version: Unannotated
In or out of class: During a class session or assigned as pre-work for an in-class discussion
Time: 3 minutes for scripting 10 for discussion. |
| Stop and Jot   | Participants watch the video and pause at each “pop-up” to reflect on an application question. | Video version: Annotated
In or out of class: During a class session
Time: 10-15 minutes |
| Search         | Participants find evidence in the video to support best practices in Classroom Management. | Video version: Unannotated
In or out of class: During a class session or the notes can be as pre-work for an in-class discussion
Time: 3 minutes for scripting 10 for discussion |