How do we prepare students to read and understand Elie Wiesel’s Night within the larger historical framework of the Holocaust? What are some of the moral and ethical questions that the memoir helps students examine?

Program Goals
- Familiarize participants with the content and pedagogy of Echoes and Reflections through experiential activities.
- Enhance teacher knowledge about the Holocaust.
- Explore Echoes and Reflections multimedia assets including the correlated visual history testimonies and other primary resources and materials.
- Introduce participants to IWitness, an online complement to Echoes and Reflections that includes interactive student-centered activities.

Specifically, for this customized program, participants will explore the following:
- History of antisemitism and the ghettos for context prior to teaching Night.
- Interdisciplinary materials, including art work, photographs, poetry, and personal narratives, for teaching about the “Final Solution.”
- Significant themes of the memoir and additional resources to support the teaching of the text.

Every participant will receive a copy of the Teacher’s Resource Guide.

Brevard Public Schools, Brevard, FL

The focus of this professional development program will be on the materials and instructional strategies available in Echoes and Reflections and IWitness to effectively teach Night as well as additional background on the memoir that teachers can integrate into their instruction.

What Is Echoes and Reflections?
Echoes and Reflections is a comprehensive Holocaust education program that delivers professional development and a rich array of resources for middle and high school teachers. With Echoes and Reflections, teachers can help students make connections with the past, gain relevant insight into human dilemmas and difficult social challenges, and determine their roles and responsibilities in the world around them.
