Student Passes for High School Visits

Effective high school recruitment involves in-person visits to high schools. While many high schools provide their own passes to students throughout the school day, it is often more effective to provide unique passes for recruitment visits. This resource provides examples of what customized advising passes can look like.

An effective Student Visit Sign-In Sheet is:

- Positive and encouraging
- Specific, thorough, and concise

An effective Student Visit Sign-In Sheet includes:

- A positive greeting
- Logistics about the visit related to the students’ responsibilities
- A reminder about the importance of the visit and expected attendance
