Teachers College Presentation

Teacher preparation programs have many qualities which make them unique. This final presentation in a series of three fully informs students of the offerings within a program and the elements which distinguish it from others. Details include key features of the program, different options within the program, and memorable experiences or traditions of the program.

An effective Teachers College Presentation is:

- An inside look into the Teacher Preparation Organization being described
- A compelling explanation as to why students should consider your institution
- Delivered in 40-50 minutes, one typical high school period

An effective Teachers College Presentation includes:

- Thorough descriptions of program offerings and their unique benefits
- Extracurricular opportunities available to students beyond their academic requirements
- A brief historical description of your institution and its core beliefs

Tips for an Effective Presentation

- Read the entire presentation thoroughly
- Rehearse the presentation aloud and time your rehearsal
- Print out supplementary materials ahead of time
- Ensure necessary presentation technology is functioning properly
- Arrange the room to suit the needs of your presentation
- Clearly display and distribute materials for the presentation

This resource is part of the Sanford Inspire Program Recruitment Toolkit, a model for teacher preparation programs to engage and attract future educators. Discover more resources at SanfordInspireProgram.org